8 10

Must I for - ev - er mourn? Must - I for - ev - er mourn
Be - neath thy mer - cy's wing, Be - neath thy mer - cy's wing,
 To thee, my God asc - end, To - thee, my God asc - end;

8 10

Must I for - ev - er mourn? Must - I for - ev - er mourn
Be - neath thy mer - cy's wing, Be - neath thy mer - cy's wing,
 To thee, my God, asc - end, To - thee, my God, asc - end;

12 14

How long wilt thou with - draw from me
Thy sav - ing health will come, and then
 Who to thy ser - - - vant in dis - tress

8 14

How long wilt thou with - draw from me
Thy sav - ing health will come, and then
 Who to thy ser - - - vant in dis - tress

Oh!
 My Such

2 How long shall anxious thoughts my soul,
 And grief my heart oppress? X2
 How long my enemies insult,
 And I have no redress?

3 O hear! and to my longing eyes
 Restore thy wonted light! X2
 And suddenly, or I shall sleep
 In everlasting night.

4 Restore me, lest they proudly boast,
 'Twas their own strength o'ercame, X2
 Permit not them that vex my soul
 To triumph in my shame.

From a manuscript housed in Room X at the Sussex Archaeological Society which formed part of Louisa Blackman's donation in 1954. Originally set to Psalm 137 OV.
