

Temperance Bells

William Stevenson

William Stevenson

Hark! the Temp'- rance bells are ring- ing, Joy- ous mu- sic fills the

Hark! the Temp'- rance bells are ring- ing, Joy- ous mu- sic fills the

Hark! the Temp'- rance bells are ring- ing, Joy- ous mu- sic fills the

Hark! the Temp'- rance bells are ring- ing, Joy- ous mu- sic fills the

5

air; Strength and hope their tones are bring- ing to the homes where dwelt des-

air; Strength and hope their tones are bring- ing to the homes where dwelt des-

air; Strength and hope their tones are bring- ing to the homes where dwelt des-

air; Strength and hope their tones are bring- ing to the homes where dwelt despair. Hear the bells, Hear the bells, Chime the an- them of the pair. Hear the bells, Hear the bells, Chime the an- them of the pair. joy- ous bells, joy- ous bells, Chime the an- them of the

9

pair. joy- ous bells, joy- ous bells, Chime the an- them of the

250Bf Temperance Bells pg 2

13

free; Hear the bells, Hear the bells Sound the Temp'-rance Ju- bi- lee.
 free; Hear the bells, Hear the bells Sound the Temp'-rance Ju- bi- lee.
 free; mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, Sound the Temp'-rance Ju- bi- lee.
 free; mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, mer-ry bells, Sound the Temp'-rance Ju- bi- lee.

(1)

Hark! the Temperance bells are ringing,
 Joyous music fills the air;
 Strength and hope their tones are bringing
 To the homes where dwelt despair;

Chorus:

*Hear the bells, joyous bells,
 Chime the anthem of the free;
 Hear the bells, merry bells,
 Sound the Temperance Jubilee.*

(2)

Long the tyrant foe hath taken,
 Cherish'd lov'd ones for his own;
 Now his cruel pow'r is shaken,
 Soon will fall his tott'ring throne.

Chor:

(3)

Brothers, come! the hosts are forming!
 Let us join without delay;
 Bright the hills with tints of morning,
 Dawning of a better day.

Chor:

"Beer Street" by William Hogarth