

Elizabeth Scott (1708-76)

Thomas Jarman (Varied from Haydn)

Treble

Alto

Tenor

Bass

All hail in-car-nate God, the won-drous things fore - told of O haste, vic-tor - ious Prince, that glor - ious hap - py day, when All hail tri-um-phant Lord, e - ter - nal be thy reign, be -

Tr.

A.

T.

B.

5

Thee, in sac - red writ, — with joy our eyes be - hold. Still souls, like drops of dew, — shall own thy gen - tle sway, O hold the na - tions sue — to wear thy gen - tle chain. When Thee, in sac - red writ, — with joys our eyes be - hold. Still souls, like drops of dew, — shall own thy gen - tle sway; O hold the na - tions sue — to wear thy gen - tle chain. When

Tr.

A.

T.

B.

10

does thine arm new tro - phies wear, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear, may it bless our long - ing eyes, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies, earth and time shall be no more, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure,

does thine arm new tro - phies wear, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear,
 may it bless our long - ing eyes, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies, earth and times shall be no more, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure,

14

Tr. and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear,
and bear our shouts be - yond the skies,
thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure,

A. and mon - u - ments of glo - ry and bear our shouts be - yond the thy throne shall stand for ev - er

T. and mon - u - ments of glo - ry
and bear our shouts be - yond the
thy throne shall stand for ev - er

B. and mon - u - ments of glo - ry
and bear our shouts be - yond the
thy throne shall stand for ev - er

18

Tr. and mon - u - ments, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear.
and bear our shouts, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies.
thy throne shall stand, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure.

A. rear, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear.
skies, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies.
sure, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure.

T. rear, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear.
skies, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies.
sure, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure.

B. rear, and mon - u - ments of glo - ry rear.
skies, and bear our shouts be - yond the skies.
sure, thy throne shall stand for ev - er sure.

Doxology

To God, the risen Son,
Father and Spirit blest,
Eternal Three in One,
All worship be adrest.
Join all on earth, rejoice and sing,
All glory give to God our King.

Thomas Jarman of Clipston has based his hymn tune 'Triumphant Reign' on the chorus 'The marv'ulous work beholds amaz'd' from Haydn's 'Creation'. 'Triumphant Reign' comes from Devotional Melodist, pub. c.1840. BLib. A.1234 c.c.

The text is by Elizabeth Scott of Norwich, who married the former Rector of Yale, Elisha Williams, in 1751.

Verses 1, 2 and 4 have been used here.

The doxology, by an unknown author, is an editorial addition, as is the repeat.

© Shelwin Music, Oxford, April 2008.